

Report on the Intra-department Literary Event “Literary Chronicles”

The English Department of B. S. Abdur Rahman Crescent Institute of Science and Technology, organized a literary event that turned out to be a perfect blend of intellectual engagement, creative expression, and fun. The event took place on 07.10.2024 (Monday) from 12.00 to 01.30 PM, and it was a celebration of English literary history, hosted by the talented students of the 3rd year.

The program commenced with a warm and enthusiastic welcome by Aren Runa, a 3rd-year BA English student, who is also the President of CLH (Crescent Literarian Hub). Following the opening, Iffat Alia graced the stage with a soulful recitation of the Quirath, invoking a spiritual start to the occasion.

Subsequently, Dr. S. Vijayakumar, Class Advisor of 3rd BA English was invited to address the gathering. His inspiring words set the intellectual tone for the day. His thoughtful insights added depth to the event.

The heart of the event lay in the exciting and educational games that reflected different literary eras. The first game, “Quizzed by the Muse”, was introduced by Anishya, 3rd BA English and she engaged participants in a fun yet challenging literary quiz.

Next, the much-anticipated Debate through the Ages, 3rd BA students spoke on and against the topic “What’s more important? To live as an individual or to live for society”. Surprise participation from, Dr. Sweta and Dr. Poornima, faculty coordinators of the event added an element of surprise and excitement. This debate was well-received, sparking lively discussions among the audience.

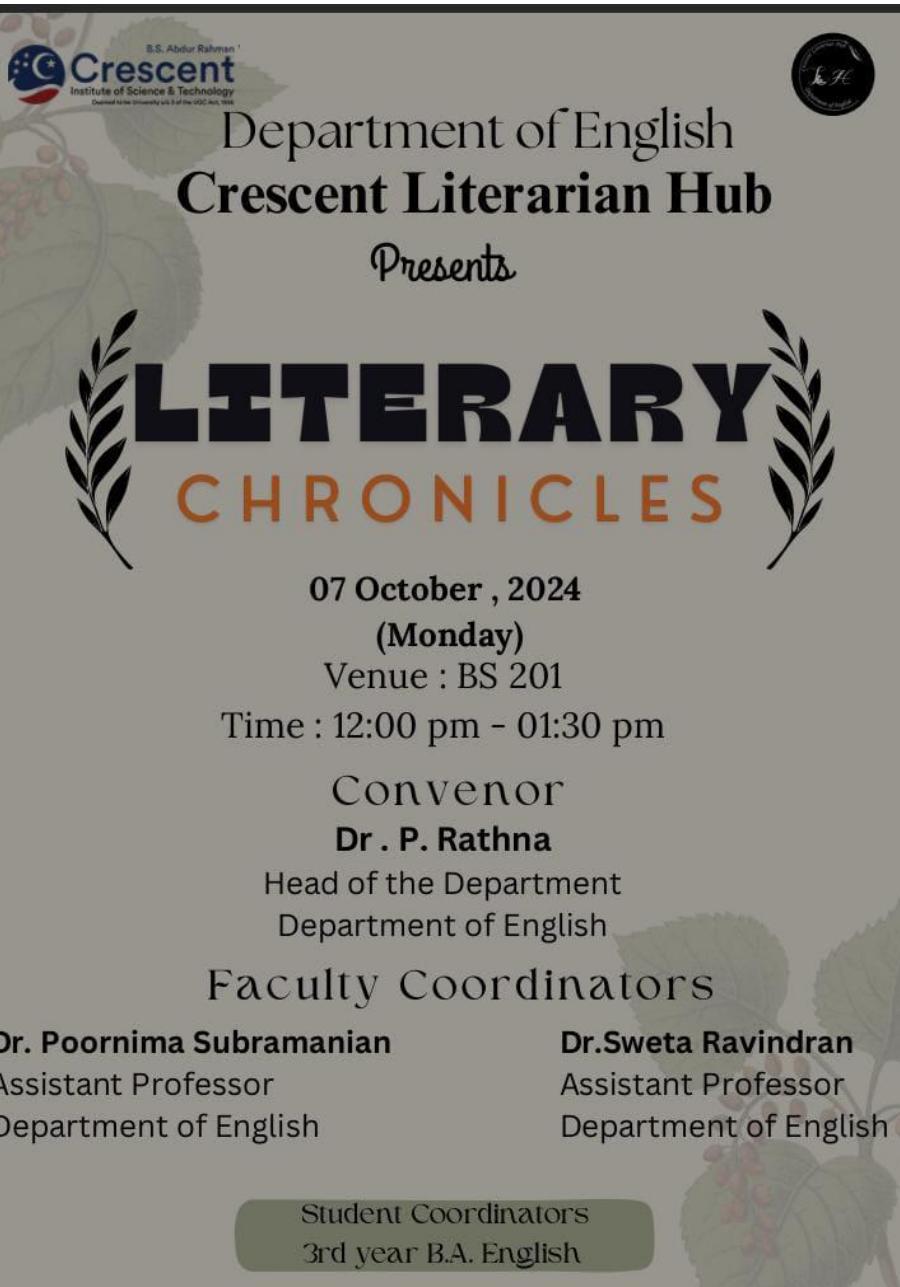

The third game, “Anti-Shipwreck: The Age of the Anti-Hero”, was led by Nakshatra from the 3rd year, followed by the fourth and final game, “Ink and Imagination”, conducted by Shariba Kauser. Both games reflected the creativity and critical thinking that literature inspires in students, showcasing their talents.

After the conclusion of the games, Dr. Catherine Anna Pushpam, Class Advisor of 2nd BA English was invited to address the gathering. She appreciated the students for their active participation and also encouraged the students to come up with similar events in the future. Dr. P. Rathna, HOD, English also addressed the students and inspired and encouraged the students to rise higher and higher.

Prince Samuel, the Secretary of Crescent Literarian Hub, delivered a heartfelt vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all who made the event a success. He emphasized the importance of each literary era in shaping not only literature but also modern thought and culture. Special acknowledgments were given to the Head of the Department, Dr. P. Rathna, Dr. T. Sugadev, Assistant Professor, and Mr. Vijay, attender for their unwavering support and smooth organization of the event.

The event concluded on a high note, with the participants and attendees reflecting on a day filled with intellectual stimulation, creativity, and a shared love for literature. It was truly a remarkable celebration of the literary journey from the Renaissance to Postmodernism. The event was a great success, bringing together students, faculty, and special guests to honor the rich history of English literature. The hard work and dedication of the organizing committee, along with the enthusiasm of the participants, ensured that this event was memorable for all.

BROCHURE

B.S. Abdur Rahman Crescent Institute of Science & Technology
Approved to be University by the UGC, AICTE, MHRD

Department of English
Crescent Literarian Hub

Presents

LITERARY CHRONICLES

07 October , 2024
(Monday)
Venue : BS 201
Time : 12:00 pm - 01:30 pm

Convenor
Dr . P. Rathna
Head of the Department
Department of English

Faculty Coordinators

Dr. Poornima Subramanian Assistant Professor Department of English	Dr. Sweta Ravindran Assistant Professor Department of English
---	--

Student Coordinators
3rd year B.A. English

PHOTOS TAKEN DURING THE EVENT

