THANKS GIVING- SANITATION WORKERS

On October 5, 2024, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit and UNNAT BHARAT ABIYAN of B.S. Abdur Rahman Crescent Institute of Science and Technology organized a heartfelt "Giving Thanks" event as part of the ongoing DAAN UTSAV 2024 celebrations. The ceremony was held to honor and support the sanitation workers of Karasangal village.

The event witnessed active participation from the UBA Coordinator, Dr. Aisha Banu, and the NSS Programme Officers, Dr. Srinivasan, Dr. Noushad, and Dr.R.Anitha. Their presence and contributions were warmly appreciated by the Karasangal Panchayat President, who was also present at the gathering.

During the event, new sarees and dhotis were generously donated to the sanitation workers as a token of gratitude for their relentless efforts in maintaining the cleanliness and hygiene of the village. This initiative not only highlighted the importance of giving back to the community but also fostered a sense of togetherness and appreciation for those who contribute to the welfare of society.

The "Giving Thanks" ceremony was a reminder to savor every moment of joy and to continue sharing love and kindness with those around us.

OUTCOME OF THE EVENT

The Thanksgiving event where sarees and dhotis were given to sanitation workers likely had several positive outcomes:

- The event helped acknowledge the hard work and dedication of sanitation workers, making them feel valued and appreciated for their contributions to the community.
- Providing sarees and dhotis not only met a material need but also empowered the recipients, enhancing their dignity and self-esteem.
- The event may have raised awareness about the essential role of sanitation workers, leading to greater respect and understanding of their challenges and contributions.
- Such events can inspire other organizations or groups to initiate similar recognition programs, further improving the welfare of essential workers.

Overall, the event likely created a positive ripple effect, fostering gratitude, respect, and community solidarity.
